

COLORADO KIDS: WORD BANK

Volume II, Issue 2 August 30, 2005

“Hundreds of children’s lives saved” societal – relating to society or a community rivaling – competing deploy – open up in a crash jingles – catchy sayings for commercials acronyms – when letters stand for another word “Paying at the pump can be painful” motorists – drivers consume – use up crude oil – oil from the earth that has not been made into a product yet

“Scientists escape from polar bears” remote – far away capsized – tipped over outboard – boat’s motor that hangs outside of the boat vulnerable – in danger stranded – trapped

“Oh Gross! Coming to Denver” interactive – hands-on exhibit – a show or display assaulting – attacking replicated – copied, duplicated originator – somebody who starts or creates something

“A sudden death in Denver”

CPR – emergency technique to save someone whose heart and lungs have stopped working autopsy – the medical exam of a dead body artery – a blood vessel that carries blood from the heart to the rest of the body colossal – huge

“Boat made of 15 million ice cream sticks sets sail” launch – set afloat, begin stuntman – a performer in movies who does dangerous tricks recycling – reusing everyday things

COLORADO KIDS: MIX AND MATCH

stuntman	drivers
autopsy	far away artifact	hands-on crude oil	object created by humans assaulting	set afloat, begin exhibit	somebody who starts or creates something outboard	copied, duplicated consume	trapped
motorists	open up in a crash rivaling	carries blood away from the heart societal	use up remote	relating to society or a community interactive	tipped over launched	in danger
deploy	a show or display stranded	emergency lifesaving technique originator	performs dangerous tricks capsized	reusing everyday things vulnerable	attacking
CPR	the medical exam of a dead body artery	competing replicated	oil from the earth recycling	boat's motor