7) Look carefully at each underlined word or phrase. If there is a mistake, use a pencil to make the correction in the space above it. If there is no mistake, write "OK" above the underlined word or phrase.

McBride warns Children that adults you don't know should not be asking kids for directions or help finding a lost puppy. "We don't want dangerous stranger's to trick you. Just turn around and get out".

8) From this lead paragraph, write in the "who," "what," "when," "where," and "why." Some news articles also include the "how" in the lead – which is the first few sentences of a news story?

Denver, COLORADO – On September 15, two hot pink fire trucks, trailing large pink ribbons, visited several cities in Colorado to offer support to women facing cancer. Some firefighters were even dressed in pink. I was fortunate to meet up with them at the North Washington Fire Station Number 1 in Denver.

10. Brainstorm and make a list of things that kids in your classroom are good at doing, like jumping rope, blowing huge bubbles, standing on one foot. Write each on a strip of paper and put in a basket. Have a Class Records Day. Draw out a slip and let kids attempt to see who can set the record for that event. Turn it into a book for your classroom. Add photos if you'd like.
