7) Look carefully at each underlined word or phrase. If there is a mistake, use a pencil to make the correction in the space above it. If there is no mistake, write "OK" above the underlined word or phrase.

"animators are like actors with pencils. We may not be up there on screen but our characters are, and thats what really matters." Haycock Said.

8) From this lead paragraph, write in the "who," "what," "when," "where," and "why." Some news articles also include the "how" in the lead – which is the first few sentences of a news story?

Oakland, CALIFORNIA – Bake an extra batch of cookies this holiday, sell them, and help a child who has cancer. Through Cookies for Kids' Cancer, Glad Products Company will match all donations raised in December, up to $100,000, which means that whatever money you earn, the amount will DOUBLE!
