5) Which answer below is NOT an example of good sportsmanship?

- e) Cheer encouragingly for tennis players while the ball is being hit back and forth.
- j) Help a player up if he or she gets knocked down.
- l) Be respectful of coaches, teammates, and opposing players.
- h) Be quiet when players need concentration, like before a golf swing.

6) Think about the people in your class. Using a different color marker for each answer, write down as many differences about your classmates as you can think of, like hair color, height, how they get to school, how many siblings they have, and so on. (Remember not to write anything that would be hurtful or unkind.) When you are finished, notice how the rainbow of differences makes your class a more beautiful place. Take a few moments to celebrate each person's uniqueness and everyone's differences.

7) Look carefully at each underlined word or phrase. If there is a mistake, use a pencil to make the correction in the space above it. If there is no mistake, write "OK" above the underlined word or phrase.

This is the most interesting book I've read because it has 158 different pictures in it, and the story is very intriguing with a thrilling chase a hidden object, and long:lost movies and pictures.

8) From this lead paragraph, write in the "who," "what," "when," "where," and "why." Some news articles also include the "how" in the lead – which is the first few sentences of a news story?

Port-au-Prince, HAITI – On January 12, a deadly earthquake rocked the capital city of Haiti, devastating buildings and killing thousands of people. It was the strongest earthquake the island nation has seen in more than two centuries.

Who (subject) _____ What happened? (action) _____
