Speaking of nutrition:

This week's edition of Colorado Kids has an article about nutrition and a review of restaurants that offer kids delicious choices. Sometimes "nutritious" and "delicious" are the same thing, but, other times, they aren't. Make three lists:

1. One of food you like but should eat less of
2. One of food you don't like but should eat more of
3. One of food that you like that is also good for you

Compare your list with a classmate and see where they are the same, and where they are different.

Proofreading:

Look carefully at each underlined word or phrase. If there is a mistake, make the correction in the space above it. If there is no mistake, write "OK" above the underlined word or phrase.

About 20 years ago, electric Scooters were very populer with kids, until towns, and cities, began to out law them on the streets and sidewalks.

Summarize the story:

Use three sentences to tell about the Yike Bike. How much of the story can you get into those three sentences?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Behind the story:

In what country was the Yike Bike invented? Find that country on a map. What is its capital city? Write three other facts about that country here, using complete sentences:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

How do you feel about scary movies?

According to our reviewer, Kaitlyn Sudolnik, Tim Burton's "Alice in Wonderland" is too scary for kids under 10. Some kids like scary movies. Some kids hate them. How do you feel about scary movies? Write a short essay about scary movies, using at least one example of a movie you really liked and at least one example of a movie you didn't like.
