- i) Write a special poem or prayers for your pet.
- s) Create a keepsake box of toys and photos of your pet.
- d) Visit lonely pets at animal shelters to pet and play with them.
- e) all of the above

6) Grief is like a sore on your foot – it won’t go away if you just ignore it. Most counselors give people healthy ways to express their grief, so they can move past it. Have you ever lost a pet you loved? Draw on this “headstone” a picture and create a memorial sentence or two. If you haven’t lost a pet, make one for a person or make one for someone else who has lost a special pet or person. Draw grass and trees nearby.

7) Look carefully at each underlined word or phrase. If there is a mistake, use a pencil to make the correction in the space above it. If there is no mistake, write "OK" above the underlined word or phrase.

"When I was at Invesco Field, I learned to never give and to finish what you start. I know it is important to be healthy and exercise everyday," said Erick, 13, of Denver.

"The Bronco players told us to exercise every day and stay active." Said Irma, 14, of Denver.

8) From this lead paragraph, write in the "who," "what," "when," "where," and "why." Some news articles also include the "how" in the lead – which is the first few sentences of a news story.

Denver, COLORADO – Almost 100 kids from Denver Metro Boys and Girls clubs ran, walked, laughed, and danced with nine Broncos players at Invesco Field on October 14 for a Fun Walk.

9) Make up a new, funny, silly, or zany headline out of all the words in today's Real News headlines. Can you top this one?

Pets remember humans

10) Neil Armstrong's quote when he landed on the moon is one of the most famous lines in history, but there is a controversy about it: "That's one small step for a man, and one giant leap for mankind." His quote was reported without the word "a." Armstrong says that he did include the word "a" but because of technology, the word didn't come through. What does his quote mean, and how does including the word "a" make a difference? Remember, every word matters!
