

WORD BANK AND WORD GAME

Colorado Kids: December 19, 2006

sanctuary – a place of safety instinct – something a person or animal knows to do naturally, without being taught trip wires – thin wires connected to explosives

donated – given freely

aerosol – a liquid or foam sprayed from a metal, pressurized can banned – stopped, forbidden

Rabbi – a Jewish leader

Menorah – a set of candles that are special for Hanukah

denied – said no to, turned down

peer pressure – being influenced by people your own age

Christmas – the holiday Christians celebrate about the birth of Jesus.

Hanukkah – the holiday Jewish people celebrate that lasts for eight days

Kwanzaa – the African-American holiday celebrating their heritage and culture

+++++ Word Game +++++

First, unscramble the Word Bank words below. One letter from each word will go in the stocking above it. If the number above the elf says 4, put the fourth letter in the stocking. If the number above the elf says 1, put the first letter of the corrected word in the stocking, etc. Complete the rhyme with the letters in the stockings. Rhyme: Happy Holidays; have good cheer! We'll be back in the new _ _ _ _ .

9

CSARYANTU

2

DENDIE

2

NEDNBA

1

RIBAB